St. Paul reminds us in the second reading that Christ died "so that those who live might live no longer for themselves." What we give to and do for others, we give to and do for Jesus!

Vocation View: Why are you terrified? Why are you lacking in faith? If God is calling you, do not be afraid. If the wind and sea obey God's call...shouldn't we?

Welcome to: Dana Elizondo; and Kenneth & Cathleen Koschinitzki and their children Mary Kathleen, Julia & Aidan. We are happy to have you as a part of the OLR family!

Catholic Charities handled adoptions for many years until late 1990s. During that time, thousands of adoptions took place. Catholic Charities has available a reunion registry. This registry is available to those who were adopted through Catholic Charities and their biological parent. If you were involved in an adoption through Catholic Charities and are interested in learning more about the reunion registry, please contact Catholic Charities at 843-402-9115 extension 15.

Respect Life

Voice of the Unborn: My urinary tract is functioning. I can urinate out the amniotic fluid I have been swallowing. I now also have my own unique set of fingerprints. My head is becoming more proportional to my body, it is about one third of my size. Please pray for me. Jesus, Mary, and Joseph, I love you very much. I beg you to spare the life of the unborn child that I have spiritually adopted who is in danger of abortion.

“Social Security’s long-term prospects are bleak because of rapid and unprecedented population aging. Part of the demographic story, is, of course, good news about longer lives...But by far the most important factor in aging over the long run is falling fertility. Societies that do not produce children will, quite naturally, grow older. And there is simply no bigger problem than a low birth rate for a conventional ‘pay-as-you-go’ pension system like Social Security.”

- James C. Capretta, “Gunner Mydral Was Right: Social Security’s Fertility Problem,” Weekly Standard May 7, 2007

Second Collection: There will be a second collection for Peter’s Pence, June 27th and 28th.

The Year of the Priest has begun! Friday, June 19th was the beginning of the Year of the Priest. There is a special insert in this week’s bulletin with more information. Please pray for Father Dac and for all priests during this special year.

Congratulations to Lilly Louise DelCollo, child of parishioners Joseph & Rhonda DelCollo, who was baptized on June 14th. Welcome to your new life as a Catholic!
